

Mr. ZHANG Ming-Zhong, Ambassador on Home Assignment, Institute of Diplomacy & International Affairs, was born in 1960.

He studied at the Fu-Jen Catholic University, at Université Catholique de l'Ouest in Angers and at Institute for Political Studies of Paris (Sciences-Po), France.

Mr. Zhang began his professional career in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA) in 1986. After his first posting in France in 1992, and followed by several senior positions in embassies and MOFA, he served as Counselor to the Secretary General in the Office of the President of the Republic from 2006 to 2007, and a year later in the National Security Council. In 2009, Mr. Zhang was appointed Ambassador to Burkina Faso, a position he held for three and half years in West Africa. From 2013 to 2015, he served as Director general of European Affairs in MOFA. Prior to his current appointment, he was Representative of Taiwan in France from 2015 to 2018.